

Nadel und Faden 2012

18th Fair for Textile Arts and Crafts
14 – 16 September 2012
OsnabrückHalle EventService

7th International Textile Competition

The infinite blue

All shades of blue are possible. Choose your favourite material.
All techniques (sewing, weaving, stitching, knitting, bobbin lace-making etc)

Anyone with an interest in textile design is welcome to participate. Each participant can submit one application form and the associated work piece.

The work piece submitted has to be suitable for exhibition:

The final dimension must be 20 x 32 cm (horizontal or vertical – golden ratio). Please sew a label with the name and address of the artisan to the back of the work piece (bottom right). Loops or straps for wall hanging are not necessary.

The following criteria are decisive for the acceptance of work pieces:

- Idea/design
- Colour and form
- Execution of the work /craftsmanship
- Overall artistic impression

Submission of the original work piece, the application form and a short written description is requested by 1 June 2012 in Osnabrück (receipt in Osnabrück). The address is listed below. A jury decides which work pieces are accepted until 30 June 2012. If a work piece is not accepted it will be returned. The jury's decision is final.

The participants who have been accepted will be notified in writing and are charged 25.00 Euro handling fee, payable to the following account: Account no. 282 741 Sparkasse Osnabrück, sort code 265 501 05. The creators of the work pieces agree to give their work pieces on loan for exhibitions and for any other commercial purposes.

A maximum of 50 participants will be accepted and attractive prizes are offered. The awards ceremony is scheduled for Friday 14 September 2012 at 12 am during the 18th Fair for Textile Arts and Crafts Nadel und Faden from 14 - 16 September 2012 in OsnabrückHalle. A collection of postcards showing the work pieces will be sold during the fair. All participants receive the postcards free of charge.
